

Congratulations to Pax Christi International from Pax Christi Toronto

The tiny flame sparked by the courageous decision of Marthe Dortel-Claudot and Bishop Pierre Th  as on March 13, 1945 is now burning brightly around the world. Refusing to be enemies of the German people, these children of God inspired an act of love that created the chalice for Oradour. Fanned by the breaths of thousands, Pax Christi is lighting up dark skies with the power of seventy years of prayerful witness.

Christ's love brings joy, peace and reconciliation to an indifferent and fractured world. In Toronto, our beloved Deacon Norberto Cambre rekindled a tiny flame in the hearts of a faithful few and now, three years after his death, and four years after his last pilgrimage to the land of Jesus, his gentle and compassionate spirit inspires us to deeper faith and passionate perseverance. In the love of Christ there is joy, peace and reconciliation.

Thank you, Pax Christi for your seventy years of peace building.

Thank you, international co-presidents and secretary general for your personal encouragement.

Tom Sagar, Discernment Team, Pax Christi Toronto, May 4, 2015